

WARNER HOUSE PRESS

EDITING AND PUBLISHING SERVICES

ABOUT

Warner House Press (WHP) is a publisher that exists to support authors who have something important to say. We provide the best combination of digital technology and craft available.

We at WHP aim to facilitate the publishing process all the way from concept to finished product. Our goal is to offer a realistic and accessible platform for local and national writers who would otherwise, for whatever reason, find it difficult to engage with a larger publishing house.
